

The Illuminating Torch

*How enlightening is this fire
That arrests the minds of liars?*

*How illuminating is this fire
That fulfills all Desires?*

*Look how vertical this fire is
And its capability to inspire.
Look how instrumental this fire is
The owners of which covertly conspire.*

*It is this magical Truth
That the illuminated Kings admire
That one is required to inquire
There is nothing higher than this...
Nothing higher...*
