

Florentine Sun

*They live inside a colorful painting
Where the background is the foreground
Where the ladies speak
The way spring birds sing.*

*They actualize a fairytale
And live with immeasurable magic
For serene disinterested pleasure
And for appreciation you cannot measure.*

The entire Florentine magna opera
Comes from the Depths of the Heart.
Their intelligentsia holds the key to
The theatrical agency of High Art.

How harmonic, harmonious and Divine
Feeling and being Florentine.
It's stillness and floral air
Atemporal euphoric state of mind.

*Florence is the land of esthetes
For it has aristocratic presence
It can teach the world lessons
About the aesthetic essence.*

*The Florentines live in a garden
As if they themselves were flowers.
It is the Medici's Discerning eye that
Gave the city its majestic powers.*
